2002.12 Sonoma West Times & News May 23, 2002

Laguna de Santa Rosa loop trail is dedicated

• Dozens gather at trail observation mound to for latest trail dedication

by Corey Young
Sonoma West Staff Writer

SEBASTOPOL — The Laguna de Santa Rosa loop trail opened to the public Saturday, with dozens of people on hand to commemorate the latest addition to Sebastopol's wetlands preserve.

Gathered at the trail's observation mound, representatives of the Laguna Foundation, the Coastal Conservancy and the city joined Sebastopol Vice Mayor Craig Litwin in dedicating the 4,000-foot trail for public use.

"I'm very proud of Sebastopol's efforts to protect

(See Trail page A16)

Corey Young

FOLLOW THE LEADER — Docent Robert Evans, at the front of the line, guides a group of hikers in Sebastopol's wetlands preserve during Saturday's grand opening of the Laguna de Santa Rosa loop trail.