You will lend insight and guidance for implementation of our new 5-year strategic plan goals and strategies, operations, and financial management. We are particularly seeking new members with skills in financial management, philanthropy, public relations, and marketing and communications.
- Build New Connections: As a board member, you will be an emissary to the community, promoting our mission and cultivating alliances and financial support among current and new generations of philanthropists, corporate leaders, and community members.
- Represent All Communities: We welcome applicants from diverse backgrounds who bring fresh perspectives and unique lived experiences to the Foundation and that represent the rich cultural and demographic diversity of all communities of Sonoma County.
